As the producer of the film you must understand and agree to the Terms & Conditions of entry outlined below.

1. Films must not infringe on copyright laws. All films are received with the entrants guarantee that he/she has rights to use all footage, sound and images of people contained within the film.
2. The Fringe reserves the right not to include any material which it deems as inappropriate. Filmmakers are required to declare any film that contains material that would not be considered as acceptable for General Exhibition. Such content does not exclude the film from being screened. Films deemed as not suitable for general exhibition by the fringe will be proceeded by warning to the audience.

The Entrant authorises The Castlemaine Fringe Film Festival to use the film or parts of the film to promote the film festival.

I, the Producer, understand and agree to the terms and conditions of entry as outlined above.
